BOILER EXPLOSION. - Most Distressing Futakiy !- Frightful Havor !- On last Wednesday, the 7th iust, about one and a half o'clock r. w., the monotony seemingly ominous, that pervaded our town was broken by a report and shock that involuntarily brought everybody to their feet. All eyes were directed toward the planing mill, recently erectdust rising in the air pointed to the foundry of Mr. Dan'l. Owen, on Greene St., as the place of disaster. Hurrying thither, a scene lumber, iron and miscellaneous debris hurled by the explosion lay scattered around. Terof Mr. Owen and Frank, a son of Simon Rinehart, Esq., about 14 years of age, lay in the road blackened, torn and disfigured. They were quickly removed and medical aid The boy, however, was beyond assistance. Standing in the door of the building, fronting the boiler, he was blown sixty on the head scattering his brain, and otherwise breaking and mangling his body, the steam and water completely broiling his flesh. The poor fellow survived but two hours. Mr. on the inside it is supposed that he was forced through the weather-boarding. His clothing was in tatters and the face and legs, from the thighs down, terribly scalded. The flying m issiles had made several terrible gashes in his limbs.
